

Charity Mistletoe Sales 2016

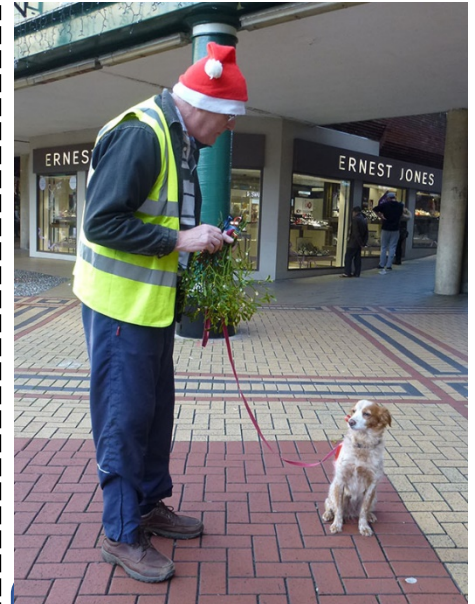

A Happy new year from the Coventry Tree Warden Network.

One of the many generous families from Coventry

This has been another year of generosity by the citizens of Coventry

Since CTWN began in 2014 we have at Christmas time, with help from Coventry City Council, offered mistletoe to Coventry citizens in exchange for a donation going towards the Lord Mayors' Charities.

One man and his dog ...

In 2014 we raised £500 when Hazel Noonan was Lord Mayor, her charities being:

In 2015 £900 went to the charities being supported by Lord Mayor Michael Hammon. :

In addition to offering the mistletoe at a stall in the City Centre we are also supported by several local flower shops. The total for 2016 from the different sources is still being assessed and will be available soon.

The charities which will benefit from the generosity of Coventry people, those supported by the current Lord Mayor Lindsley Harvard, are:
